Mrs. C. J. Perry $30, and cting proceedings in the
was rescinded.
Court vs. John Rapp.— was ordered to file with the Court all contracts rs held by him in relaing of the Marlin's Bot-to John Rapp for the pur-the same in repair and rdered in favor of Aus-$14, and Alex. Knight

vices as jury commis-

ered in favor of H. H.
for $112.49 for taxes cted of them in the

in favor of C. H. Hill, Deaf, Dumb and Blind
for clothes furnished n inmate from this

Van L. Nutter for ser-r in bringing in elec-

A. Curry and James
ppointed viewers to d, beginning at Nick-tersecting the new
lt from Hoke's Mill
or near Harrison

T. A. Handley, sur-
Lewisburg district,
ort showing amount
ntractors and others,
ict No. 1, $171.77;
44.60; and District
eport approved and red in favor of the

favor of J. J. Whan-king care of Ander-
charge.
favor of T. H. Jar-repairs on Muddy
adline.
of D. C. Riffe for clerk for the jury

last Sunday, and died on Monday. It occurred near Dilley's Mill, and the weapon was an old-fashioned pistol.

Mr. Chris. M. Lewis died at his home near Hillsboro last Saturday, the 30th ult., aged 48 years.

Family Re-union.

The Bunger family, of this county, has long been one of the best known and most highly respected families of the Greenbrier Valley. On the 26th of September, at the old homestead at Bunger's Mill, four miles west of Lewisburg, and now the property of Jos. H. Bunger, Esq., a family re-union was held—the day being the anniversary of the marriage of Dr. E. F. Raymond, of Frankford, with Miss Eliza Bunger, and also the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Minnie E. Pearse, of California, (the granddaughter of the late Mrs. Arch Lewis, nee Matilda Bunger,) and now visiting her many relatives in this county. Owing to the rainy weather many of the family connection were unable to attend, but still there were fifty-three present, ranging in age from six months to eighty-six years. Thev came on horseback, in wagons and carriages, until the house was well filled, and one may well imagine how joyful was the meeting of many of them who had not met before for well nigh two decades. The morning hours were pleasantly spent in exchanging congratulations and good wishes, in recalling the scenes, and incidents and experiences of by-gone days. At one o'clock dinner was announced and all, old and young, big and little, sat down to a feast, which, in its rich abundance and excellent quality, did ample credit to the well known hospitality of the old homestead. The afternoon was spent in merry games and singing some of the sweet old songs of days gone by. The occasion was one of the greatest pleasure and enjoyment to all present, and in days to come will be recalled as a most delightful, if not a notable

Mr. Ross Watts, of Alderson his relatives here a visit this wee

Mrs. S. F. Rush is visiting her ter, Mrs. Jas. Humphreys. He friends will be glad to learn health has been very much imp

Messrs. J. H. Hoke and E. art killed a bear (as is report Hart's Run on Saturday last.

To the Public School Teach Greenbrier County.

Vacation is over and the sc in session for the autumn an and I would insist that eac employ his leisure hours by the course of Professional Re scribed by the State Superin Teachers will find this read explained in their programm stitute work for 1893. The be read this year are—

1, Quick's Educational Re
2, Education in the Unite Boone. 3, Elements of
E. E. White. 4, Normal
Teaching.

These books can be had at ing named places and pric and 2, D. Appleton & Co.
$1.26 each. No. 3, Ame
Co., Cincinnati, at $1.
Publishing Co., 1020 Arch delphia, at $1.50.

"The law requires that shall study this prescribe study, and shall pass a sat amination on these subject the Institute course, and 1 certificate before they ca from Institute attendance arrange to examine teach part of the course in the sp and issue certificates of p those that pass a satisfact tion on the same. Respec

W. F. Le
County Super